Dear Sir/Madam,

The Indian American Nurses Association of Greater Houston (IANAGH) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, with the primary goal of uniting all nurses of Indian heritage. We facilitate professional growth and support the unique professional, social, and cultural needs of our members

It is with great pleasure that we announce IANAGH's APRN Conference and APRN week Celebration scheduled for November 5th, 2022, at the University of Houston, Sugar land Campus, 14004 University Boulevard, Sugar land, Tx 77479 from 8 am 2.30 pm.

Our theme is: "Educate, Empower, and Excel"

At this program, we are expecting more than 100 nurses, including Registered Nurses and Advanced Practice Nurses from the Houston area. Every year, we celebrate APRNs to appreciate and acknowledge the key role of APRNs play in health care.

During our APRN Conference/Celebration program, we provide Continuing Education Credits, Incentives for the presenters, goodies, and food for our attendees. This is made possible by the generous support of sponsors like you, and our members. The sponsorship offers many opportunities for your company to advertise your products on our main nursing page, our social media page, etc. It is an excellent way to share information about your products and services.

Please see the details of each type of sponsorship and payment options in the sponsor-specific form attachment below. We appreciate all your support in the past to IANAGH and we look forward to your support and sponsorship. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Elsy John, DNP, RN-BC
